Hi Tom,

Thanks for all your replies. We are currently trying to plan the exact date of our move, but it looks like we won't know for sure until early January. I thought I had read somewhere that after the shipment arrives at the Singapore port (approximately Jan 16th), that there's about 1 week of processing by the local customs authorities, etc. Is that correct? In other words, our shipment would be ready to collect from your depot starting around January 23rd, and we would have until January 30th to arrange pickup?

The answer to this question will influence our collection date / desired shipping date from London.

Many thanks,
Kat and Dorien

Thank you for all the information.

We will book in a few hours, under the name Dr. Kathleen Agres.

Hello Dorien and Kat

You get a week to collect the goods before storage starts. We will provide the ETA's and tracking information so you'll be well aware of when the goods will arrive.

In terms of alcohol we would strongly advise against it in your shipment. Whilst it isn't prohibited, customs will charge duties and are likely to inspect the who consignment. They will also charge you to inspect.

Prohibited Items are as follows;

- Liquors and cigarettes marked with the words "SINGAPORE DUTY NOT PAID" on the labels, cartons or packets
- E-cigarettes
- Chewing gum, chewing tobacco, and imitation tobacco products
- Weapons, gun, ammunition of any kind, cigarette lighters of pistol or revolver shape
- Narcotics, controlled or non-branded drugs, and psychotropic substances
- Endangered species of wildlife and their byproducts
- Firecrackers or counterfeit currencies
- Obscene articles, pornographic books, materials, publications on video tapes / discs and software
- Reproduction of copyright publications, video tapes, video compact discs, laser discs, records or cassettes
- Seditious and treasonable materials
- Animals and birds and their by-products
- Plants
- Bullet-proof clothing
- Weapons, Kris, spears and swords
- Prerecorded cartridges and cassettes
- Newspapers, magazines
- Films, video tapes / discs, laser discs, CD-ROMS, and video games
- Medicines, pharmaceuticals, and poisons
- Telecommunications, radio communication equipment, and toy walkie-talkies

A backpack and saxophone are absolutely fine to be included and will be packed together in our Shrinkfast system.

Hello Tom,

Thank you very much for quick the reply. It all sounds very good to us. We can hire a van to pick up the goods from the depot. How much time (how many days) would we have to pick up the boxes? Do we need to do this within a given timeframe before there are storage charges?

Secondly, are there any customs restrictions we should be aware of? (And out of curiosity, would we be able to pack two bottles of alcohol?)

Lastly, we would like to know if everything needs to be in boxes, or if we could also include a backpack and a saxophone case in addition to the boxes.

Sorry for the many questions. I think we're nearly ready to book!

Best regards,

Dorien and Kat

Good morning

Thank you for your email. Yes it would be 10 of your boxes to 1 cubic metre.

We have quoted to our Singapore depot but those time frames are about right. With a confirmed address I can offer a delivery service but with such a small move it would be more cost effects to pay our agent direct on arrival for this service in local currency.

The next step is to complete our secure no obligation 60 second booking form - https://www.shipit.co.uk/Overseas_Removals_Booking.htm . There is no deposit required or cancellation fee, it simply reserves your collection date and 10% discount.

You are not committed to a volume/quote. It simply gives us opportunity to hold your preferred collection date at this busy time. Should you need to change/cancel this date just let us know.

I look forward to hearing from you soon and should you have any further questions do not hesitate to get back in touch.

Thank you very much for the feedback, that is very helpful.

Our boxes are 47 x 48 x 41.2 cm. How many of these would fit in 1m2? Would it be 10?

Also, if the shipment sails on 23/12/2016, arriving 16/01/2017, when can we expect our shipped goods to arrive at our door... Jan 23rd?

Finally (and sorry for all of the questions!), would it be possible to collect our boxes sometime between Dec 10-13th?

Hello Dorien

Thank you for your message and enquiry. We will be quicker than other companies offering weekly shipments with a transit time of only 24 days. We updated our sailings here - https://www.shipit.co.uk/container_shipping_schedules/singapore.htm

To ship your goods we just need a care of address. This can be updated.
